"And one man in his time

How true that all the world is a stage! Here at Granite Falls High School we have played many parts----freshman, sophomore, junior, senior, scholar, athlete, clown, friend, mate. Some of our performances here have been commendable while others not so praise-worthy---but all our roles have provided us richly and rewardingly with knowledge to have and use; memories to bless and burn; friends to love and trust.

The curtain will presently fall to end the play that began, for some of us, in 1959. No one will deny this was a hit; but now let us preview the current cast and play itself _____ presenting

"I'll note you in

September was a month that was new in spirit. It was the month that brought together here at Granite Falls High School many students . . . those who were as green as emerald, others who realized this September 1961 was the last as students at G. F. H. S. We can remember many things . . . our first grid game . . . the disappointment that came with some of those games; the joy that came with others. Study? At times it was evident! Our sins finally caught up with us: Exams!

my book of memory."

Spring came and so did the fever: To some, "Love (was) a many splendored thing;" to others, "The tender trap;" while some got that "Band of Gold." Seniors began to count the days . . . . Final exams . . . . Senior Chapel . . . . Baccalaureate Service and Commencement . . . . the days dwindled down to a precious few . . . . and then good-byes were said . . . . It was four years of happy times . . . . "Memories are made of this . . . "

DEDICATION

Our librarian, Mrs. Helen C. Walker is ever willing to render service and at all times has the best interests of our school at heart. She has taught us to believe that books, wisely chosen and properly used, are the "best of friends, the same today and forever." For helping to develop within us an appreciation of the value of reading, we dedicate this issue of the 1962 GRANITE BOULDER.

Mr. R. W. Starnes
Principal
Lenoir Rhyne College

Here at Granite Falls High School we have been partners in the thrilling enterprise of learning how to live completely. We could not have done this without the untiring guidance of our principal, Mr. Starnes. He is always eager to help you with any problem that may arise and is willing to understand your difficulties. Because of his deep abiding devotion and loyal service through the many years we would sincerely like to thank him.

Mrs. Glenn Cooke
Secretary to Principal
Bristol Commercial College

Mrs. Cooke is a new addition this year but she is a much needed and appreciated one. She has been a great help to Mr. Starnes with the work that has to be done in the office. We thank her for her work in contributing to the school.

CLASSES give us the chance to study and explore the unknown. It is true one cannot study the sun with saucy looks . . . But if one is to know the truth, then study must be a diligent deep-searching. In our role of student, we have studied the past, analyzed the present, and are ready to launch out into the future with our knowledge. May our knowledge always be the truth.

BEST-ALL-AROUND

There can be nothing added to this title to explain it. Because of their being able to do almost anything that is put before them Carolyn and Mack have been chosen as the BEST-ALL-AROUND Senior boy and girl.

Carolyn Barlow and Mack Keller

SUPER

Elaine Fox and Bobby Bowman

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

We feel sure that Elaine and Bobby will fill their place well in life. Their wonderful ability and determination have helped them thus far and we know they will help them in later life.

Karan Beane and Hugh Annas

CUTEST

In looks, manners, and personality, Karen and Hugh are the CUTEST. Not only are they cute but they are also cheerful in everything they do.

LATIVES

Audrey Marshall and Roger Jones

NEATEST

Audrey and Roger have acquired a worthwhile habit. When they dress, they dress so that they will be pleasing in the sight of their friends. Everyone should follow their practice by caring how other people see them.

MOST POPULAR

Judy and Mack have learned that without friends life would be miserable. They do not have to worry about friends because they are liked by everyone who comes in contact with them.

Judy Looper and Mack Keller

SUPER

Carolyn Barlow and Spencer Poovey

MOST DEPENDABLE

Carolyn and Spencer are always ready to help with anything they can. They do the work assigned to them without complaining. Because of this trait they were chosen MOST DEPENDABLE.

Barbara Young and Keith Foster

BEST LOOKING

To acquire this title one is not just nice looking on the outside, but has traits that go deeper. Your actions make you nice looking to other people.

LATIVES

Lynda Blackstock and Jim Noggle

WITTIEST

What would the world be without humor? Dull!! Everyone should take Lynda and Jim's advice to make the largest worries seem small by laughing.

ACTIVITIES are a natural outlet for the expression of the student---a creative moment in his day. Extracurricular activities go hand in hand with his curriculum and in his education for citizenship. They go to make an integral part of the student's high school days . . . . A relief for the tortuous anguish of the hour.

Football 1962

The Granite Falls Blue Demons were able to equal last year's record, but not to better it. Their over-all record was four wins and six losses.

The first game of the season was with Fred T. Foard, a conference team. The Demons were able to pull out a victory by some good offensive play.

Everyone was looking for a winning season, but then came the hard blow. The Demons were knocked off by Bandys by the score of 6-7. The next game was with Hildebran, and the Demons were hoping to redeem themselves, but they failed again, losing 8-13.

After the loss to Hildebran, the Demons worked hard for their game against highly rated Maiden. It was in this game that the Demons made their best showing of the year, but they lost by the score of 6-12.

With the load of three losses and one win, the Demons went into their next game against St. Stephens with their heads hanging low. The Indians were very fired up and trounced the Demons 26-0.

Although the Demons were entering the game against Rock Springs with a 1-4 record, they were favored to win and did just that by a score of 41-6. This was the first time the Demons were able to really play ball. Their surge of power was short, however, for their next opponent, Gamewell, upset them by a score of 6-7. This put the Demons back deep in the hole.

As the Demons got ready for the favored Charlotte Catholic team, they were disheartened. Everyone was surprised when the Demons turned in a good performance. This increased their slim win column to 3 games against 5 defeats.

The next team the Demons were to meet was the Hudson Hornets. The granite team was fired up for this game and almost took a win over the 3A team, losing 20-26.

As the last game of the season came, the Demons were determined not to go down in defeat. The demons' opponent was Bunker Hill. The Demons were the underdog, but they managed to take an easy 19-0 victory. The season was finished with a record of 4 wins and 6 losses.
